

PRIVATE MEMBER'S MOTION NO. 9/08-09

Establishment of an Historical Research and Documentaries Commission on Members of the Legislative Assembly

WHEREAS the Legislative Assembly is a pillar of democracy and the Members who serve in this hallowed institution strive to make significant contributions to the strengthening of this democracy;

AND WHEREAS the efforts and wisdom of the former Members of the Legislative Assembly have led to Cayman islands becoming and remaining a true and viable democracy;

AND WHEREAS that political stability has led to the economic success that has made this country the fifth largest financial centre in the world;

AND WHEREAS these acts of selflessness and love for country should form part of our historical records and act as means of motivating present and future generations to become proud, law-abiding and productive citizens;

BE IT NOW THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Government consider setting up a Commission to oversee research and the production of documentaries and other methods of storing information on former Members of the Legislative Assembly to be made available to Caymanians, residents and visitors through the National Archives, the Public Libraries and the various Educational Institutions of the Cayman Islands.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Commission be comprised of:

- Current Members of the Legislature; and
- A representative of the National Archives.
