PARLIAMENT
OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

Answered on 27th February 2024
Third Meeting 2023-2024 Session - Second Sitting

PARLIAMENTARY QUESTION
ASKED BY HON. ROY MCTAGGART,
ELECTED MEMBER FOR GEORGE TOWN EAST

TO

THE HONOURABLE DEPUTY GOVERNOR, MBE, CERT HON., JP

QUESTION:

Can the Honourable Deputy Governor inform the house how many vacancies there are within the RCIPS for officers in neighbourhood policing teams and the police community support officers?

ANSWER:

The chart below offers an overview of the current staff numbers and gaps within the Community Policing Teams of the RCIPS. Based on the overall figures, it has been determined that there are presently 23 personnel, including Community Safety Officers across the three islands. With a capacity of 34 personnel, there exists a deficit of 11 personnel.

Royal Cayman Islands Police Service

RCIPS – COMMUNITY POLICING
Units	Current Strength	Future Establishment	Increase
GTPS - CPD	9	15	6
GTPS - CSO	1	2	1
WBPS – CPD	4	5	1
WBPS – CSO	1	2	1
Eastern Districts - CPD	6	7	1
Eastern Districts - CSO	2	3	1
Total	23	34	11