PARLIAMENTARY QUESTION NO. 13
Answered on 11th December, 2024
Second Meeting 2024-2025 Session – Second Sitting

PARLIAMENTARY QUESTION
ASKED BY

HON. KATHERINE EBANKS-WILKS, MP - ELECTED MEMBER FOR THE CONSTITUENCY OF WEST BAY CENTRAL

TO

THE HON. DWAYNE SEYMOUR, JP, MP - MINISTER RESPONSIBLE FOR SUSTAINABILITY & CLIMATE RESILIENCY AND WELLNESS

QUESTION:

Can the Honourable Minister provide an update on the Government's plan to address the 7 Mile Beach erosion?

ANSWER:

The Government continues to engage with key stakeholders to address the issue of erosion affecting the southern end of Seven Mile Beach and is taking the necessary steps to develop a holistic, sustainable solution. Cabinet recently approved the necessary funding to procure consultancy and coastal engineering services to develop a technical design solution to restore and stabilise approximately 4,500 linear feet of the southern end of Seven Mile Beach. The Request for Quotes (RFQ) was issued on BONFIRE on 27 November 2024, with a deadline for responses of 13 December 2024.
